

NEW HAMPSHIRE AND NEW MEXICO SWING TO WILSON COLUMN

California Remains Democratic and Minnesota Still In Doubt With Absentee Soldier Vote Inclining Toward President; Hughes Exhausted Goes To Bed; Man- agers May Abandon Contest Plan

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
WILLIAMSTOWN, Massachusetts, November 11.—Smiling, bowing and apparently intensely happy, Woodrow Wilson spoke to several thousand persons gathered before the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frances Sayre, to congratulate him upon his victory over Charles E. Hughes.

"I want to say now that the campaign is over," said the President. "The nation must think of one thing only. We should forget our party interests and think and work for the best interests of the great country we all love. Let us forget the differences that have separated us and unite for the common service of the United States. Only in that way can we work for the great nation which has given us liberty and real peace."

The throng which gathered soon after the arrival of Mr. Wilson, sent a delegation to ask for an address, and applauded until he appeared on the porch. Mr. Wilson is here to act as godfather for his grandson.

NEW YORK, November 11.—Wilson, enthusiastic and appearing happy and confident before a crowd of several thousands gathered to congratulate him upon his victory, and Hughes, exhausted by the prolonged strain of the last few days retiring to bed silently, but determined to fight to the bitter end if need be before conceding defeat; these are the two pictures that epitomized the political situation through the nation last night.

Wilson at Williamstown, Massachusetts, where lives his daughter, Mrs. Frances Sayre, appeared more than ever jubilant over the last returns, which showed him gaining the States of New Mexico and probably New Hampshire, with Minnesota still doubtful, but unnecessary to Democratic victory. This makes his electoral college total 276, with Hughes still 235.

New Mexico is in the Wilson column past all doubt now, unless the official count shows a surprising change in the tally of ballots to-date. With but forty-seven precincts unheard from when the counters ended their task last night, Wilson led his opponent by 2,811 votes. This is more than the total number of votes in the missing precincts, according to the estimates by the State's campaign managers of both parties, and consequently the Democrats are victorious. Earlier reports from Santa Fe gave the State to Mr. Wilson by more than twenty-five hundred votes.

CALIFORNIA REMAINS IN WILSON COLUMN

California also remains solidly in the Wilson column, although the lead of the President over Hughes is likely to be reduced somewhat as the count nears completion. Fifty-eight hundred and fifty-two precincts last night showed the following figures: Wilson 466,059, Hughes 462,813. Earlier in the day the count for 5847 precincts showed Hughes 456,807 and Wilson 462,632. This shows that the Wilson lead had been cut down slightly more than 2000 votes.

MINNESOTA HANGS IN BALANCE STILL

Minnesota is still in doubt with its twelve electoral college votes. The latest reports from the counters last night showed that Mr. Hughes is still slightly in the lead in that State, the last figures being for 3008 precincts, Hughes 178,037 and Wilson 177,534.

There are but thirty-eight more precincts to be heard from in this State, but the balloting of the Minnesota troops upon the border may change the status of the State and throw it to the Democrats, for the reports from the boundary line polling places indicate that the guardsmen on duty there are leaning strongly toward the President in their votes.

NEW HAMPSHIRE JOINS RANKS OF BOURBONS

New Hampshire is now counted as a Democratic State for the first time in many years. The reports from Concord indicate that one of the freak twists of fate has happened there, for the State was, after many fluctuations, placed in the Hughes column Thursday night. Yesterday however Secretary of State Bean announced that the count had been clouded by the election clerks in two precincts to tally the Wilson vote at all. This was brought out in a recount of the ballots, and cut down Mr. Hughes' lead of 324 votes entirely giving the State to Mr. Wilson by just seventy votes. New Hampshire has four votes in the electoral college.

It was the news of the loss of New Hampshire that sent Mr. Hughes to bed at nine o'clock, exhausted by the watching and waiting that has been his lot since Tuesday night, as well as by the intense nervous strain under which he has been laboring. He declined however, to concede the election to Mr. Wilson.

MAY NOT CONTEST FINAL RETURNS

George W. Perkins, the banker and Progressive leader, after a conference with Mr. Hughes announced that the party managers are as yet undecided whether they will demand a recount in California, North Dakota and New Mexico. He intimated that they will defer their action until after the official count has been made in the hope that this will alter the results in those States.

Earlier in the day Lawrence Green, secretary to Mr. Hughes, in response to questions by reporters, said that Hughes has not yet congratulated President Wilson on reelection.

Hughes went automobiling in the afternoon, in cheerful spirits. A conference of Republican campaign managers was held shortly before that and after it was over the Republicans refused again to concede the election. Three districts in West Virginia and a congressional place in New Mexico are still in doubt.

MCCORMICK GOING HOME

Democratic Chairman McCormick is preparing to return to Harrisburg and resume his private business. Workmen are removing the furniture in the headquarters of the Democrats, who view the election as over.

In West Virginia Hughes leads by a comfortable majority, the last reported count being Hughes 135,206, Wilson 132,176.

In a statement to the press shortly after noon yesterday, William R. Wilcox, chairman of the Republican national committee, declared that he had not conceded the election to Mr. Wilson.

He asserted that the result still depends on the vote in the close States, and that the fight is so close that a few votes reversed may change its aspect. He says that an official count may reverse the unofficial count in some of the close States and that he will not acknowledge defeat until the official count is tabulated.

REELECTION CONCEDED

The reelection of President Wilson was conceded everywhere last night when the majority for the Democratic nominee was increased by

GOETHALS SURE OF CONQUERING SLIDES

Scouts Statements of Calamity Howlers and Expresses Confidence in Canal

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
WASHINGTON, November 11.—Assuring the success of eventual control of slides in the Panama Canal "for all time" Maj. Gen. George W. Goethals, constructor of the big ditch, yesterday branded as false the reports circulated by "calamity howlers" that the canal was a failure because of the blocking of the waterway by earth movements. General Goethals' statement were made in his annual report made public yesterday. He says:

"Notwithstanding the statements of calamity howlers that slides would continually block the Panama Canal, I can give assurance that the earth movement in the canal can and will be overcome finally. Once controlled, this earth movement will be conquered for all time."

"I mention the subjects of slides in the waterway only because of the false and misleading reports published throughout the United States and sent to foreign countries that the earth movement was beyond control."

"Such reports are false and unfounded. They gained credence because of the pending treaty between the United States and Nicaragua which contemplates the purchase by this country of certain rights."

RAW FOOD SPREADS PARALYSIS SAYS WESTERN DOCTOR

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
SPOKANE, November 11.—Claims that he had discovered the cause of infantile paralysis, which swept in epidemics through the Eastern States last summer taking a high toll of lives among children, were made here yesterday by Dr. Earl Current in an address before the county medical society.

Dr. Current declared that a fungus growth in raw fruits and vegetables brought about the fatal disease for which no remedy has yet been discovered. He said that a series of successful experiments had proven his theory.

The transmission of the disease from the fungus growth in raw fruit or vegetables, he said, said, takes place either when eaten by children or when communicated to infants by mothers who are nursing after having previously eaten such raw foods.

MISSOURI "DRYS" LOSE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
ST. LOUIS, November 10.—Prohibition was overwhelmingly defeated here in the recent election.

In late count in New Mexico and when the last hundred precincts in California had been reached and it was certain that the returns to come would not eliminate the Wilson majority. Some of the latest California precincts counted, as a matter of fact, added to the Democratic lead.

A quarter to ten Thursday night the returns in the office of the Associated Press showed that the big fight was over and that the President had been returned for another term. A "flash" was immediately sent out throughout the country. This message was delivered to Secretary Greeley, at Ashbury Park, who greeted it with a shout of relief.

He listened to get in touch by wireless with the President who is on the yacht Mayflower, en route to Williamstown, Massachusetts, where he is to be present today at the christening of his granddaughter. Mr. Greeley communicated the news to his chief, but received no message in reply for publication.

Neither Mr. Hughes nor the President has yet made a statement on the result of the count as known. Both are understood to be waiting for the official count.

STATE DEPARTMENT ADMITS GRAVITY OF SUBMARINE CRISIS

Has Prepared Summary of the Teuton Underwater Activity For the President

OFFICIALS FEAR THAT AMERICANS WILL BE HURT

German Submarine Operations On Vast Scale Endangering Neutral Lives, They Declare

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
WASHINGTON, November 11.—It was learned today that the State department will submit to President Wilson a complete summary of the recent German submarine activities immediately upon his return to Washington.

Government officials refuse to make any statements on the attitude that the President or the State department may take in the matter although they admit that the situation is far more disturbing than at any time since the sinking of the Sussex.

The present operations of the German submarine fleet is on such a vast scale, they say, that it seems almost impossible to avoid endangering the lives of Americans. It is believed that the situation is so grave that international complications might arise at any moment.

The State department has received word from the United States embassy in Berlin that Germany will investigate the sinking of the British horse transport, Marina two weeks ago, with the loss of the lives of Americans in the crew. The Marina, it is said by survivors, was torpedoed unwarmed.

SITUATION IS GRAVE

On its face, the case of the Marina, reported by American Consul Cost at Queenstown, presents the gravest situation that has arisen since the sinking of the Channel liner Sussex, which brought the American and German governments to the verge of a break. The consul cabled that the Marina, a horse transport with a mixed crew of British and Americans, had been sunk without warning by German submarine gunfire 100 miles west of Cape Clear, and that seventy of the crew of 104 were missing. Press dispatches have indicated that the missing men might reach shore in their boats later.

Another message from Mr. Frost said members of the crew of the Roman, another including Americans, had been sheltered in their boats while abandoning the ship after being chased by a submarine for fifty minutes. There were no casualties.

Crew Entitled to Immunity

According to the agents in this country of the Marina's owners, the Donalson line, the vessel, with some fifty American horse tenders aboard, was not under charter to the British government as a transport, but was engaged in her regular trade as a freighter and carried horses for the Allies as a part of her general cargo.

Under such circumstances she would be entitled to all the immunities of any other belligerent-owned merchantman, and an enemy destroying her and her cargo would be required to make due provision for the safety of the ship's company, unless she was sunk in the act of attempting to escape.

Apparently all depends upon the accuracy of the first reports, whether the Marina actually was attacked without warning or whether she is to be regarded as only another of the scores of British carriers that have gone to the bottom as the result of their skipper's desperate efforts to outrun enemy shells.

Frost is regarded as a thorough investigator and has placed a part in determining the facts in many of the most important submarine incidents, including the destruction of the Lusitania.

BRITISH AIRMEN SHELL TEUTONIC DIVER SHELTERS

GENERAL CARRANZA NOW ON DEFENSIVE

Reports To Joint Peace Commission Show Rebels Are Gaining Strength Fast

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
ATLANTIC CITY, New Jersey, November 11.—The conference between representatives of the United States and Mexico here to arrange a settlement of the specific difficulties between the two countries along the border may come to an end soon with out an agreement except of a most general character according to developments yesterday. Formal adjournment is now admitted as probable without any detailed settlement of differences.

The principal fact that has proven a sore to both the American and Mexican members of the joint border commission is the increasing strength of the various elements in Mexico opposed to the de facto government. Yesterday the conference received confirmation of previous reports of the growth and development of the Villa, Zapata and Felix Diaz reactionary factions. The new offer the determination of the commission to effect an early adjustment of the border situation.

As a result of the comparison of official reports received by both the American and Mexican conferences on the activities of Pancho Villa's bandit armies it was disclosed that General Carranza, head of the de facto government, is conducting a defensive campaign against Villa instead of being the offensive and that a battle is imminent at Laredo to which Carranza forces have withdrawn.

VILLISTAS SURROUND CITY OF CHIHUAHUA

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
SAN ANTONIO, November 11.—According to reports that have reached the City of Chihuahua is surrounded by an organized army of the followers of Villista. Assault on the city is expected at any moment, it is said, and so grave is the danger that the consuls of Great Britain and Germany have fled from the city. The railroad running into the city is said to have been cut by the bandits in order to prevent any movement of the de facto troops.

STRICT ACCOUNTABILITY ALL RIGHT, BUT CASH IN ADVANCE IS BETTER

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
NEW YORK, November 11.—Marine underwriters here gave notice yesterday that the war risk rates on American shipping plying in Mediterranean waters are to be increased by five per cent.

The same increase is to be made in the rates on vessels trading into the war zone.

The increased activities of German submarines is thought to be the reason for the jump in rates.

GERMANS DEPORT MANY CITIZENS OF ANTWERP

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
LONDON, November 10.—A despatch received here says that a German ship transported 21,000 citizens of Antwerp to Germany and that there is a panic in Antwerp, the breaking up of families and removal of citizens from their business having caused much alarm. ## KAUAI GRAND JURY SCORES FILIPINOS

Calls Special Attention of Court To Frequency of Crime On Island

The Kauai Grand Jury has some caustic comment to make on the frequency of crime among the Filipino population within its jurisdiction. In a report to the circuit court last week at Lihue, in which it returned three true bills, according to Tuesday's issue of the Garden Island, the jury stated:

"We would call the attention of Your Honor to the fact that the crimes committed by the Filipinos have become so menacing to the welfare of the public in general that we would request your honor that severe punishment be imposed against all or any of the parties hereto indicted."

The occasion of the grand jury's denunciation of Filipino lawlessness was the indictment of three men of the race for assault with weapons dangerous to life for beating Louis Conrad, section lun for the Mokee Sugar Company on Wednesday of last week.

The men attacked the lun in a field back of the mill, clubbed him senseless bound him and again beat him. A Chinese who went to Conrad's rescue was also beaten.

The Garden Island also reports the suicide of a Japanese named Iwasaki by poison. He was 41 years old, married and father of one child.

ELECTION BRINGS WORK TO OFFICE OF W. W. THAYER

Secretary of the Territory Wade W. Thayer has a new task this year as a result of the election of last Tuesday. He and his office force are required to make out the certificates of election of the successful candidates.

Heretofore this task, under a curious Hawaiian law, has devolved upon the sheriff of the county in which the candidate ran, but the last legislature changed the law, requiring the Secretary of the Territory to issue the certificates.

Official election returns from the various county clerks had not all been received by the secretary yesterday, the only complete returns in hand, those for Oahu. The others are expected to be in by the middle of next week, partial returns having already been received.

The official returns for Oahu show no material difference from the unofficial returns already published by the Advertiser. Delegate Kuhio received a total of 3601 votes on this island ninety-seven more than McCandless who received 3504.

Single ran highest on the mountain ticket, his vote being 3647. Corbett got the next highest number, 3615. Hanaka was at the foot of the list with 2859. Luana received 3271, Pacheco 3405 and Kirtz 3273.

Jarrett led the list of representative candidates in the Fourth District with 2185 votes. Kawai was at the bottom with only 1148. Andrews received 2084. Almeida 1387, Bright 1270, Cooke 2185, Marquez 1970, Petrie 1945, St. Clair 1320, Chuhi 1296, Wilder 2073 and Walter 1634.

In the Fifth District Miles topped all others with 1876 votes. Kuppian being a close second with 1827. Ahuna got 1715, Amana 1418, E. J. Crawford 1410, Willie Crawford 1434, Fernandez 1336, Gay 1484, Kalana 1658, Kalinini 1411, Mossman 1524 and Vieira 1399.

TEUTON SMASH UPON RUSSIAN LINES DRIVES FOEMEN BACK

Three Thousand Prisoners; Many Machine Guns and Other Booty Captured by German Drive Up on the Eastern Battle Front

FIERCE AERIAL BATTLE REPORTED ON WEST LINE

Thirty British Battleplanes and Forty German Machines En- gaged in Fearful Struggle High In Air Over Heads of Troops

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
PARIS, November 11.—Driving against the center of the Russian line on the eastern front yesterday the Germans smashed their way through the first trenches and forced back the Slavs over a width of two and one half miles to the second line trenches, capturing 3000 prisoners, many machine guns and other munitions and equipment.

This fight, which came as a surprise to the Russians, took place about twelve miles northeast of the city of Baranovich, north of the Pinsk marches where there has been such desperate fighting in the past. The attack was carefully calculated, and driven home with an utter disregard of cost, which carried everything before it.

Slavs Admit Defeat

Petrograd admitted in the official statement issued last night by the Russian general staff that the assault had been successful, and that the Russian line had been penetrated.

Elsewhere in the west the struggle continues with but little variation, and the reports of the day show that comparatively few attacks were made and those for the most part unsuccessful on both sides.

In the Dobruja district however the reports tell a different story. There the Russians and Rumanians are continuing their offensive against the troops under the command of General von Mackensen, and are driving the Germans and Bulgarians out of the positions they captured a few weeks ago, and closing up the gaps in the Entente line.

Nearing Vital Railway

The approach to the railroad that runs the district from the Black sea to the Danube, and which is vital to any operations against Bulgaria is continuing slowly, assert the despatches from Bucharest and Petrograd.

The Russians, two miles west of Schersch are fighting for an important river bridge across the Danube in the Dobruja district. The Rumanians have suffered a reverse at the hands of the Teutons and have been driven from the region west of Buzeu valley.

The despatches from Berlin deny that the Germans have been defeated in Rumania and add that the Teutons made progress against the Rumanians in the Predel sector, Transylvania, and repulsed many counterattacks.

French Claim Gains

In the West the French claim slight gains in their attacks upon the German holding positions north and south of the Somme river. Berlin however flatly denies this and states that the Teutons have repulsed all assaults inflicting heavy losses upon the assailants.

There has been extraordinary aerial activity on the Western front during the last twenty-four hours according to reports from Berlin, London and Paris. In one engagement the Allies are reported to have had thirty British aeroplanes engaged against forty Germans. Berlin declares that seventeen of the Entente fliers were downed, while the French official communique states that ten of the German airmen were killed by the British. London officially admits that seven of the British aviators failed to return.

DEUTSCHLAND READY FOR LONG DASH BACK HOME

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
NEW LONDON, November 11.—Loaded with a cargo of rubber, nickel, zinc and bar silver, valued at $1,500,000 the German submarine merchant ship Deutschland, is prepared for her return dash across the Atlantic. According to rumors here it is believed that the big submersible will slip from her moorings within the next forty-eight hours.
